

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

FLAT RIVER

Harley Knowles, of Farmington, was a Flat River visitor Saturday.

Miss Elsie Schick was a Farmington visitor Friday evening.

Ira Eaton, of Bismarck, was a Flat River visitor Sunday.

Dr. Edw. Griffin spent the first of the week in Springfield, Mo., attending the Southeast Missouri Dental Association.

Marvin Campbell, of Desloge, was a Flat River visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Schick, Mrs. E. A. Wallace, Misses Lillian Prather and Elsie Schick visited the former's daughter, Miss Hilda, at Arcadia.

Shelby Lyons, of St. Louis, spent the week-end here the guest of friends.

Miss Dee Allen McKinney, of Farmington, was a Flat River visitor Saturday.

Miss Eva Lewis returned home Saturday, after having spent a week in St. Louis with Miss Dorothy Doen-dyke.

Miss Iva and Ralph Haney visited friends in Bismarck Sunday afternoon.

The sophomore class entertained the freshman class Friday night. The evening was spent playing games and was enlivened with music. Dainty refreshments were served. All report a most enjoyable time.

Prof. and Mrs. J. U. White spent Sunday in Bismarck, visiting relatives.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. M. Seel, on April 24th, a son.

R. C. Detchemendy returned home Saturday from St. Louis, where he spent several days on business.

L. C. Schultz spent the week-end in Cape Girardeau with relatives and friends.

Miss Maggie Hahn was operated on at the Bonne Terre hospital Saturday for gall stones.

Mrs. R. L. Scott is in St. Louis in a hospital, where she underwent an operation for gall stones.

James Goff has returned home for the summer. He has been away attending school.

Courtney Norwine, who has been attending school at the Missouri University, returned home the latter part of the week.

Bud AuBuchon, who left a week ago has accepted a position with the Ford Co. in St. Louis.

Corbin Newcomb, who is studying law at the Cape Normal, spent the week-end here with home folks.

Miss Hester White, who has been attending school at the Missouri University, returned home the first of the week. She expects to leave some time soon for Baltimore, Md., where she has a position as overseer of a playground.

Mrs. R. C. Detchemendy returned home Monday, after spending a few days in St. Louis visiting friends.

Miss Genevieve Barker was a Bonne Terre visitor Tuesday.

R. C. Detchemendy was called to St. Louis Wednesday on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. Detchemendy.

Miss Trixie Hulsey, of Doe Run, visited her cousin, Miss Lillian Prather, here Wednesday.

Geo. Cozcan was called to Cornwall Sunday on account of the serious illness of his father.

J. N. Brown spent the week-end in Cornwall with home folks.

Mrs. J. W. Kells was a Bonne Terre visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. Phillips was called to Cornwall Monday on account of the illness of her father, Mr. Cozcan.

Misses Emma and Tola Rhodger entertained with a luncheon the teachers of the North Ward.

Wm. Hulsey, of Doe Run, visited his sister, Mrs. C. R. Prather, here Monday.

Miss Lillian Prather was an Elvins visitor Thursday.

Mrs. A. P. Mitchell and little daughter, Harriet Emma, who are in the National hospital, are getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Parks and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gull spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week with Jack and Miss Lillie Matkin, of near Bismarck. Mr. and Mrs. Parks expect to leave Monday for California for the benefit of the former's health, hoping the change of climate will prove beneficial, as he has been sick for three months.

BISMARCK

H. L. Stapp and son, Bert, of Leadwood, were here Thursday on business.

Wm. Sykes, of Elvins, was a visitor here Thursday.

Mesdames D. H. Cameron, of Flat River, and Sam Does, of Desloge, were guests of Mrs. Wm. Matkin Tuesday.

Miss Emma Schieting and Francis Stady, both of this city, were married in Farmington last Monday evening. They will make their home here.

Mr. Stepp, of New Madrid, was a guest of Mrs. Ben Smith, his sister, the fore part of the week.

Miss Ruth Haney, of Stanton, Mo., is at present visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Middleton.

Mrs. Calvert, of Ironton, was a business visitor here Thursday.

Mr. Shorewater, of Belgrade, was a week-end visitor at the home of N. W. Tally.

Walter Braddy and son, of Elvins, are at present visiting at the home of Sam Burch.

A short program and pie supper was given at the Hickory Grove school Saturday night.

Henry Wise, of Elvins, was a visitor here Saturday evening.

Supt. Bayer and son, Lyne and Robert Tumbleton were Flat River visitors Saturday morning.

Wm. Hartenbeck, of Iron Mountain, was a visitor here Saturday.

Mrs. L. L. Papin was a Leadwood visitor the latter part of the week.

Robert Wood returned home Friday from Van Duser, Mo., where he had been teaching school the past winter.

The County Court members passed through here Wednesday.

Mrs. D. C. Howell, of Centerville, was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. O'Dell, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stady went to Marquand Friday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. Brennecke and baby, of Irondale, were guests of her parents; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Woodrow, and family the latter part of the week.

Coach Baker, with eight track warriors, will go to Flat River Saturday, where they will enter the Fourteenth annual St. Francois County Track and Field Meet.

Mrs. James Thompson was a Flat River visitor Thursday.

I. A. Rainwater and daughter, Minerva, were Bellview visitors the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dent, of Caledonia, were visitors here Friday.

Mack Denman, of Columbia, Mo., was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Lucy E. Sloan Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denman and son, Earl and daughter, Marguerite, of Farmington, were visitors here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Burnette and son, Paul, of Farmington, were visitors here the week-end.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Harry Gordon, which occurred in St. Louis last week.

Chas. Kettinger was a Farmington visitor from Saturday to Sunday.

Joe Haw, Wm. Egoe, Joe Means, Wm. Hull and Joe Knox, of Caledonia, were visitors here Sunday.

Carter Taylor and "Doc" McKenzie, of Leadwood, were Sunday visitors here.

Edgar West and wife, of Elvins, were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. West.

Rufus Baker and family, of Leadwood, were Sunday visitors at the home of M. W. Baker.

Mr. Kendall and family, of Ironton, were visitors at the home of the Polk family.

Jeff Hughes and family, of Flat River, spent Sunday with friends and relatives here.

Mr. Berry and wife, of Flat River, were Sunday visitors here.

Frank Dequire spent the week-end visiting in Fredericktown.

Mr. and Mrs. McGeorge were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Mayora Sloan, of Potosi, was home the week-end.

Roy Eldson was a Fredericktown visitor from Saturday to Monday.

Monroe Pierson, of Bellview, was a Sunday visitor with relatives here.

Ralph and Ivey Haney and Mr. Pierson, of Flat River, were visitors here Sunday afternoon.

James Beard, of Flat River, visited his aged mother here Saturday.

"Bill" Pieffer, of Irondale, was here Sunday.

Miss Blanch Beard, of Flat River, was a guest of home folks over Sunday.

Mrs. Al. Trauernicht was a Middlebrook visitor Sunday.

Jesse Hunter returned home Sunday from Columbia, Mo., where he has been attending the University.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Welker were Ironton visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Onie London were Loughboro visitors Sunday.

D. H. Cameron, of Flat River, spent Saturday here on business.

Miss Fern Hughes arrived home from Cape Girardeau Saturday, where she had been attending the teachers' college.

Harry Dace was taken to the Bonne Terre hospital Sunday, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Conrad, of Iron Mountain, was a Sunday visitor here.

Miss Grace Wood, of Leadwood, was a guest of friends here Sunday.

Thomas Boatright, of Iron Mountain, spent Sunday here.

Robt. McClary and family, of Bellview, were visitors here Saturday.

Jiles Henderson and family, of Ironton, were guests of Mr. Moyer, Saturday.

Wm. Boiz, of Bellville, Ill., was home over Sunday.

LEADWOOD.

Ezra Francis was transacting business in St. Louis Wednesday of last week. Ezra says the people of St. Louis are far behind the people here in the way of enlightenment. He says they don't know that we have prohibition in this country.

S. J. Hensley, of Texarkana, Ark., was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Edw. F. Karsch, the middle of last week.

Frank Rice, who returned here a few months ago from Omaha, Neb., has rented his property to Jas. Murray and moved to Irondale. He could not find work here, which necessitated his leaving us again.

Marvin Ringer, of Bonne Terre, was here on business a short while the middle of last week.

C. E. Miller, who has been working in St. Louis, and Granite City, for some time, has bought the property that he sold here to Miss Theresa Henderson, about a year ago. We are glad to have them with us again.

Clean-up day here last Tuesday was a grand success. All of the business houses were closed at noon, and the men turned out with their teams and wagons to haul away all refused trash about the homes. It would of been a good idea if someone would of had a moving picture camera, and got a picture of B. F. Towl, A. C. McMullin, J. F. Posto, J. R. Mason, J. Adam Karsch, B. A. Kea and Rev. J. W. Ham, in full action working on the side walks, and cleaning the streets. Future generations will not believe the like has ever happened.

The Corner Stone Laying of the Leadwood High School building will be held May 10th. Mr. C. E. Pratt of Flat River will make the address, assisted by County Superintendent, J. Clyde Akers, of Farmington. Miss Gay has arranged a program of Music for the occasion.

The Commencement address of the Leadwood High School will be delivered by Dr. Ivan Lee Holt, Pastor of St. Johns Methodist Church of St. Louis. It will be held at the New Community House, May 13th.

John R. McCarthy, of the McCarthy Construction Co. of St. Louis, was in town Thursday and met with school board on Thursday night. The board made arrangements with him to have three more extra rooms added to the building, which will give ample school room for several years.

Messrs. James and Otto Wells has bought the grocery store of C. J. Lewis, in what is known as Tetley addition of Leadwood. Mr. Lewis expects to move to Detroit, Mich., in a few weeks.

Wash Forester and family, of Wichita, Kans., was visiting J. S. Boyer here the latter part of last week. He drove through in a Ford from Wichita.

Prof. J. W. Reeves has business at Farmington last Saturday.

C. F. McCabe, who has been under the weather for the last two weeks, is much improved and was able to drive over to Bonne Terre Saturday with S. E. Williams.

Geo. T. Belknap, who is working in St. Louis, taking a vocational training course, visited his home folks here from Saturday to Sunday.

Chief Traffic Cop J. F. Beckler, who has been visiting in Dayton, Ohio, for the past two months, returned home Saturday night, and is back on his job looking after the traffic business.

Miss Oma L. Ray, of Bonne Terre, visited Miss Mildred Keith here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Owens, of St. Louis, are visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Williams were shopping in St. Louis Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. J. V. Mayberry, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken to the State Hospital at Farmington Sunday.

Mrs. William Sparks and Mrs. John Terrell, of Potosi, visited Mrs. Sparks' daughter here, Mrs. J. A. Evans, and family, from Friday until Monday of this week.

J. C. Fields transacted business at Iron Mountain and Ironton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Baker drove to the Iron Mountain Lake Sunday and spent the day.

The opening of the New Community Hall here last Saturday night by the American Post No. 83, of Bonne Terre, with a play entitled "A Hooded Coo" was a grand affair. The spacious hall was filled to overflowing. This hall has a seating capacity of about 800 people, and many more can get standing room. The play was enjoyed by all, and Bonne Terre has much to feel proud of in her excellent talent, in both the play and her splendid orchestra, which furnished music for the occasion. Just before the last act, Mr. H. L. Stapp, one of Leadwood's foremost business men, expressed in a few well chosen words the thanks of the citizens of Leadwood to Messrs. Crane, Adams, and the St. Joseph Lead Co. for their interest in the welfare of the Citizens of Leadwood in furnishing such a magnificent building to be used for all community meetings, that it had filled a long cherished hope of the people here, and in conclusion called for a rising vote of thanks to the above gentlemen, to which all heartily responded.

WOMACK

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wess Kearns, on April 22, a son.

John Shaw and son, Roy, were in Farmington last Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Ellis was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Cowley, at Libertyville Wednesday.

Robt. McDuffy and Walter Ellis were business visitors at Coffman on last Wednesday.

Ollie King, who is traveling salesman for a hat and cap company of St. Louis, spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. W. A. King.

Those from here who attended the entertainment and pie supper at Cross Roads were: Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Huhn and daughter, Henry and Thelma Hawthorn, Paul and Wm. Lenz, Archie Cartee, Oscar and Alfred Sands, Elijah Warren, Leon Womack and daughters, Clara and Thelma, Roy and Glen Shaw, Nellie, Flora and Johnnie Tearnau, Harry Leigh, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hicks and daughters.

Mrs. G. W. Womack entertained the following named persons on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Baldwin of Higdon, Mrs. Jane Williams of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Womack and daughter and Elijah Warren of Womack, Ed Duncan and Aaron Tucker of Flat River.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoehn, of near Flat River, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoehn, Sunday.

Sterling McNeece, of Kansas, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Robt. McDuffee, a day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stacy of near Fredericktown, are guests of his brother, Lawson Stacy, and family here at this writing.

Jeff Johnson, of Fredericktown, and Alonzo Johnson, of near Yount, were in this community the past week.

Guy and Perry Haney and Mr. Everly, of near Avon, were in this community last Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Ellis, of Womack, and Elizabeth Cowley, of Farmington, were guests of their cousin, Mrs. Leon Womack on Monday.

W. J. Hines is attending Court at Ste. Genevieve this week.

Thelma and Henry Hawthorn were guests of their sister, Mrs. Emery Tucker near Libertyville over Saturday night.

Wm. Cartee, of Flat River, is the guest of his family here at this writing.

Mrs. Jane Williams, of St. Louis, is visiting her sister Mrs. G. W. Womack here at this writing.

Mrs. Wilbert Whitworth was called to Marquand on Monday on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Cornman.

Robert Wade and sister, Annie Tucker, passed through here on Sunday enroute to the Stave Factory to visit another sister, Mrs. Edd Roan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Womack, of Libertyville, were the guests of Mrs. N. C. Moore on last Saturday.

Noah Cartee was a business visitor in Farmington last Saturday.

Elizabeth Cowley, of Farmington, was guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Ellis, from Sunday until Monday.

Raymond Griffith, of Libertyville, was guest of his mother last Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Ellis was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Cowley, at Libertyville last Sunday.

The death Angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roan at Stave Factory near here at 2 o'clock on April 21, and removed their only son, Arthur, after six weeks intense suffering from pneumonia and spinal meningitis. He was aged four years and one month. All that loving hands could do was done to restore his health but all in vain. God said "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Arthur is only awaiting the call of the resurrection morning. He leaves to mourn his death a father and mother and one sister, and a host of other relatives and friends. He was laid to rest in the Christian cemetery at Libertyville on April 22. This community extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton and family have moved from Flat River to their farm here to reside this summer.

Charlie Danieley, of Coffman, was a business visitor here on last Saturday.

Mr. Stetterfield, of Bismarck, was guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hines last Sunday.

CROSS ROADS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz and daughter motored to Flat River last Sunday and visited relatives.

Mrs. Jane Matthews closed her school here last Friday and returned to her home Saturday night.

Mrs. Mitchell spent the week-end with her son at Fredericktown.

Mr. and Mrs. Loughary were shopping at Fredericktown last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Unflett and family, of Flat River, spent the week-end here.

Mrs. Joseph Vessels spent last Sunday with relatives at Flat River.

Valva Thurman and Willard Hicks of Yount, attended the pie supper and entertainment here Saturday night, and spent the remainder of the night with their uncle, Alonzo Hicks, and family.

George and Aaron Tucker, of Flat River, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Theodore, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ferguson, is reported on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dines and Mrs. Nell Tucker, of Fredericktown, attended the entertainment and pie supper given here Saturday night.

The Cross Roads school, taught by Miss Jane Matthews, of Fredericktown, closed Friday, but the entertainment and pie supper was given Saturday night. There were five graduates from the eighth grade, as follows: Clarence and Edith Dann, Hazel Bequette, Sadie Wright and Stella Sands. The class colors were black and gold, and the room was decorated in those colors. J. B. Dines, of Fredericktown, delivered a very able and interesting address, and presented the diplomas to the graduates. The pies sold very well, the total receipts being $20. The cake for the prettiest girl was won by Stella Sands.

Miss Matthews has closed a successful term of school at this place.

Gladys Matthews returned to her home Saturday, after spending a week here with her sister.

Josie Pirtle, of Flat River, spent the week-end with her parents near here.

William Lenz was a business visitor at Fredericktown last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim King and two children were shopping at Fredericktown last week.

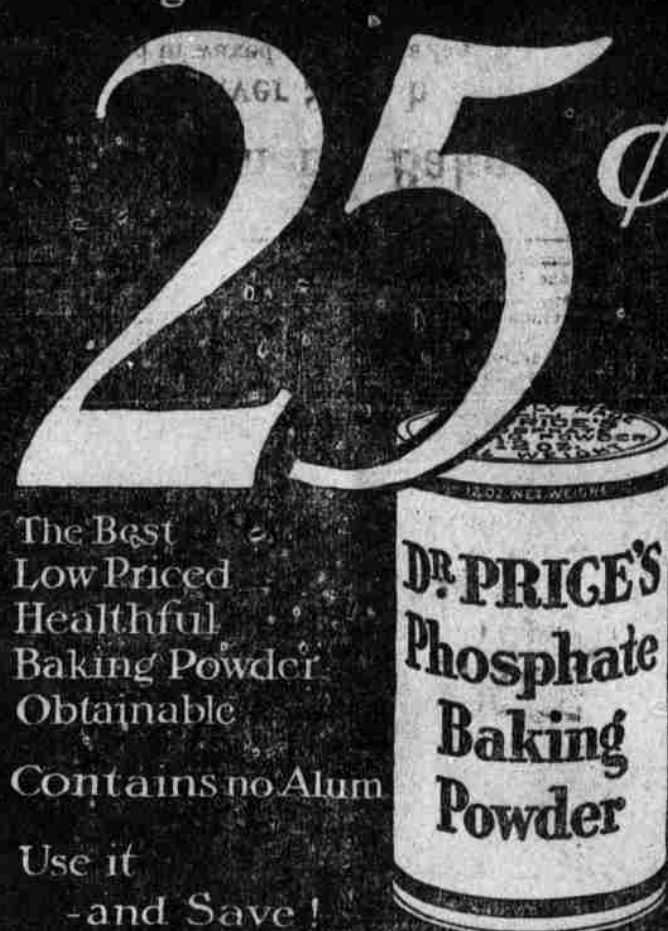

Leon Womack and two daughters, Paul and Wm. Lenz, Henry Hawthorn and Lige Warren, of Womack, attended the pie supper here Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Matthews and little son, Mrs. Wm. Matthews, and Mrs. Bobbit, of Fredericktown, attended the entertainment given here Saturday night.

PRIMROSE

Geo. Buckingham, of near Hopewell,

Large Can. 12 Ounces

Write for New Dr. Price Cook Book-It's free
Price Baking Powder Factory,
1003 Independence Blvd. Chicago, Ill.

made a business trip here Wednesday.

Miss Myrtle Cash, of near Big River, was a visitor at the home of Wm. A. Moon Wednesday morning.

Mrs. E. F. Meyer and daughter, Miss Anna, were shopping in Bonne Terre Tuesday.

John O'Sullivan, of Bonne Terre, made a business trip out here Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Annie Cash and little son spent an evening the fore part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moon.

Mrs. Samuel Whitter was a guest at the home of M. W. Jones Tuesday evening.

L. Williams motored to Bonne Terre last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lass Cash and little son, Albert, spent Wednesday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore.

The Primrose school closed here Thursday.

Mr. Blackwell, of Moontown, made a trip to Bonne Terre the fore part of last week.

There was a singing at the home of Wm. A. Moon Wednesday night, which was attended by a large number of neighbors, and an enjoyable evening spent.

Harvey Lawson transacted business in Bonne Terre Thursday.

Miss Bertha Blackwell, of Moontown, spent Thursday night at the home of W. A. Jones, of Melzo.

Miss Verna Jones was a guest at the home of Wm. A. Moon Friday evening.

Jacob Matthey, of near Melzo, transacted business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Miss Beulah Moon, of St. Louis, spent Saturday night here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moon.

Thos. Rawson, of Prospect, was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Rev. E. J. Hamrick, of near Hillsboro, filled his appointment at the T. M. B. church Saturday and Sunday.

Howard and Clarence Blackwell, of Moontown, and Geo. Holdman, of Melzo, motored to Bonne Terre Sunday.

Miss Eva Jones, of Melzo, was a guest of Miss Etta Lawson Sunday.

Wm. Wilkison, of Melzo, made a business trip to Bonne Terre Saturday.

Miss Iva O'Sullivan, of Bonne Terre, was guest of the Misses Meyers Saturday and Sunday.

Edwin Murphy and G. Wheelahan, of near Valles Mines, motored out to Bonne Terre Saturday.

Andrew Ketcherside, of Big River, was guest of Harvey Lawson Sunday.</